COMMENT: website: www.ctc.ca.gov

Ex-officio members may be permitted to vote in committees or subcommittees in order to establish a quorum or as otherwise determined by majority vote of the Commission.

AB 1123 (Muratsuchi, Chapter 181) of 2025 modifies the composition of the Governor's appointments, reducing the 3 public members to 2 by phasing out the first seat to become vacant after 1/1/26, and reassigning that seat to an early childhood faculty member. In addition, the bill clarifies that of the 6 public elementary or secondary school teachers, one may hold a commission-issued child development teacher permit and teach at a state-funded preschool program or prekindergarten program.

SB 478 (Rubio, Chapter 148) of 2019 recast the voting members for the commission by reducing the public members from 4 to 3 and instead requires one member to be certificated human resources administrator in a public elementary or secondary school. It also eliminates the CA Postsecondary Education ex-officio appointment and adds an ex-officio representative of the California Community Colleges Board of Governors.
