BY GOVERNOR EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
CONCERNING PARDONS, COMMUTATIONS
OF SENTENCE, AND REPRIEVES

To the Members of the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

In accordance with article V, section 8, subdivision (a) of the California Constitution, Penal Code section 4807, and Government Code section 12017, I submit to you a report on the pardons, commutations of sentence, and reprieves issued during 2014. I pardoned 167 people, and did not grant any commutations or reprieves.

The report includes copies of the pardons, as well as copies of the applications submitted for each.

The report may be found at http://gov.ca.gov/docs/2014_Executive_Report_on_Pardons_Commutations_of_Sentence_and_Reprieves.pdf. You may also call the Governor's Office at (916) 445-2841 for a hard copy of the report.

Sincerely,

Edmund G. Brown Jr.

David Charles Agnason

David Charles Agnason, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 24, 1969, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. He served one year, nine months with the California Youth Authority, and two years, three months parole. He was discharged on December 14, 1973, having completed his sentence.

David Charles Agnason has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated December 18, 1997, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Charles Agnason has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Charles Agnason a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Edward Allen

Edward Allen, a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 30, 1987, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Allen appears to have driven an individual to a friend's house knowing the individual planned to rob the friend. He served three years probation, and 240 days jail. He was discharged on June 30, 1990, having completed his sentence.

Edward Allen has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Edward Allen, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Edward Allen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

APPLICATION FOR EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Complete this application to request a pardon or commutation from the Governor. A pardon is the forgiveness of a crime and a commutation is a reduction or elimination of a sentence. If you are eligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation, do not complete this application; instead obtain a Certificate of Rehabilitation from the superior court in your county of residence. (See Penal Code, § 4852.01.) If the pardon is granted, this application or the Certificate of Rehabilitation may be a public record; specific personal information may be blacked out before it is made available to the public.

2. Briefly describe the circumstances of the crime(s) for which you are requesting a pardon or commutation (attach additional pages as necessary):

I was young and immature. I started using drugs at a young age. I started selling drugs to pay for my own habit. I was addicted to my own product and I was my best customer. I would come out at night and sell drugs at the local club or whereever I could to get enough money to buy drugs for myself. When this wouldn't work, I would commit more petty crimes to pay for my habit.

3. Explain why you are requesting a pardon or commutation (attach additional pages as necessary):

Today, I have completely changed my life, I am a business owner and responsible taxpaying citizen. I seek closure as my own personal statement that I am a different person today who has completely changed his life and now concerns himself with taking care of his family, and providing the means to care for them so they never have to experience the poverty that came along with the addictions I had.

4. Provide a brief statement explaining why you should be granted a pardon or commutation (attach additional pages if necessary):

I ask this office not to listen to my words, but instead, look at my actions in making a determination if I am a person who is a good candidate for a Pardon. I have been clean & sober for more than 10 years. Today, I respectfully ask for closure in this matter once and for all so I can finally feel whole again.

Eric Anderson

Eric Anderson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 3, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation. He was discharged on March 3, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Eric Anderson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated April 11, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Eric Anderson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Eric Anderson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Application for executive clemency

Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr:

I am writing this letter and attaching it to my application in hopes that it will get reviewed and granted.

I am requesting a full Pardon from the Governor of the State of California.

There are a couple of reasons for this request. The first and foremost is for my Family. My Parents, wife and kids have asked me to pursue having my conviction set aside and ask for a full pardon to bring closer to that bad and disruptive time of my life 25 years ago, we feel this will provide closer for all of us.

The second reason is my Father is in his 70's he is an avid hunter he has had hip surgery, 2 knee replaced and back problems. He hunt's with a champ tag here in Arizona my Mother has requested he give up hunting unless I can accompany him on these hunts to assist him. I have committed to being there for my Dad for the remainder of his time for hunting and I feel it's only a few more years and hunting is really all he has left. It would mean so very much to him if I and my son could spend the next couple of years hunting with him. He has always wanted three generations to experience hunting and camping together because it is such an important part of his life and who he is.

Why I should be granted a full pardon:

My conviction was 25 years ago and my conviction has been set aside by the Superior Court of San Diego. I have remained lawful and have not been convicted of any other crimes. I feel I have demonstrated over the last 25 years that I am a law abiding husband, father of three children and grandfather of four. Pardons are designed to reward people who have made mistakes and turned their life around I have fulfilled this requirement for 25 years and hope you will see the same and grant me a full pardon with all rights re-instated

Thank You

He was discharged on October 17, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Frank Charles Belville has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated November 7, 2008, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Belville served his country in the United States Navy and by working in the Department of Defense, and he is currently active in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Frank Charles Belville has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Frank Charles Belville a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Sandra Morris Black

Sandra Morris Black, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about October 12, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Alameda, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. She served two years, six months probation, five months prison, and one year, one month parole. She was discharged on October 18, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Sandra Morris Black has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, an order dated July 13, 2010, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Sandra Morris Black has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Sandra Morris Black a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN THE MATTER OF PETITION OF SANDRA MORRIS BLACK [redacted] FOR CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION AND PARDON

ORDER GRANTING PETITION FOR CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION; CERTIFICATE OF REHABILITATION

FILED
JUL 13 2010
CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT
COUNTY OF STANISLAUS
By Linda Ortiz Deputy

This matter came on regularly for hearing on July 12, 2010, in Department 4 of the above-entitled court, the Honorable John D. Freeland, judge presiding. Petitioner appeared in pro per; the People appeared by Michael Houston, Deputy District Attorney. Having considered the Petition filed on June 8, 2010, and the Report of the District Attorney filed June 28, 2010, and receiving no opposition to the petition,

THE COURT FINDS the petitioner is a resident of Stanislaus County, and meets the residency requirements of Welfare and Institutions Code section 4852.06, thus giving the court jurisdiction to hear the matter; that notice was properly given as required by section 4852.07; and that the petitioner has demonstrated by her course of conduct her rehabilitation and her fitness to exercise all of the civil and political rights of citizenship,

IT IS ORDERED that the petition is granted, that the petitioner has been rehabilitated, and this court recommends that the Governor of the State of California grant a full pardon to the petitioner.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk provide certified copies of this order to those persons and entities as set forth in W&I Code section 4852.14 and 4852.17.

Hector Briceno

Hector Briceno, a resident of New Mexico, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 9, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Briceno conspired to rob a convenience store while armed. He served three years probation. He was discharged on April 10, 1983, having completed his sentence.

Hector Briceno has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Briceno performs volunteer work for the local police department and volunteer fire department.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Hector Briceno, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Hector Briceno a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

Steve John Campbell

Steve John Campbell, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 27, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of evading peace officers with disregard for safety. Specifically, Mr. Campbell attempted to outrun police in order to avoid a ticket. He served nine months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on February 27, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Steve John Campbell has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated April 16, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Campbell states that he participates in the Susan G. Komen Walk for the Cure and fundraises for Fun Fly, and that he wishes to reenlist in the National Guard. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Steve John Campbell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Steve John Campbell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Frank Lawrence Cardwell

Frank Lawrence Cardwell, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 9, 1959, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of vehicle theft. Specifically, Mr. Cardwell and two others took a 1948 Convertible that did not belong to them, although the car was returned undamaged to its owner. He served one year, three months parole, and eight months prison. He was discharged on January 9, 1961, having completed his sentence.

Frank Lawrence Cardwell has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Cardwell has not been in trouble with the law since 1966.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Frank Lawrence Cardwell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Frank Lawrence Cardwell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Mabel Cockrell

Mabel Cockrell, a resident of Oklahoma, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 9, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of assault with a deadly weapon, other than a firearm. Specifically, Ms. Cockrell was involved in a fight with another person. She served three years probation. She was discharged on January 9, 1992, having completed her sentence.

Mabel Cockrell has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Mabel Cockrell, has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Mabel Cockrell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

April 21, 2014

Dear Sir,

I am writing in regards to an application request for a pardon of a crime that I committed in Kern County, California many years ago.

The situation was that I was living in Bakersfield with a common-law husband, his family, and our 3 year old son. The grandfather owned a construction company, and after a couple of years working for him, he was planning on retiring and the company was to go to the family. My husband and I had been together approximately 5 years at this time. He became involved with a female during our time there. I ended up in an altercation with her. I was charged with assault and battery with bodily injury. I went to court and was convicted of a felony. I did not contest this because I knew that I had fought with her. I had no idea at the time what this represented, as I had minimal experience with the justice system.

Upon release from Lerdo prison, I eventually moved back to Oklahoma, with my son and stayed with my family until I could secure a job and a home. I obtained my GED, and nursing license (LPN), in short order. I married, for 23 years now, and have 2 other sons. My nursing career has been very productive. My Associates was obtained in 2001, and Bachelor's in 2007. I have been accepted to a Master's program that is awaiting accreditation for a Doctorate designation. I plan to graduate with a Doctorate in Nurse Anesthesia (DNAP) in 2017.

I am requesting a pardon because this charge has plagued me all my adult life. I have not allowed it to hinder my progress, but would like to be able to say with confidence, "I have served my time and am rehabilitated and I am a productive citizen", and have the state of California agree with me. I feel that I deserve a pardon because I have been a tax paying productive citizen since my release from prison. I have proven beyond a doubt that I am an excellent nurse and an asset to every job that I have held [redacted].

I thank you for your time and attention to this matter for me. If there is any further information that you need from me, please do not hesitate to call or email.

Sincerely,

Mabel "Lea Ann" Cockrell BSN, RN, CCRN

Jack Daniel Cole

Jack Daniel Cole, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 23, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance and child endangerment. Specifically, Mr. Cole permitted methamphetamine to be manufactured in a shed behind his house while his child was present in the house. He served one year, seven months prison and one year parole. He was discharged on August 13, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Jack Daniel Cole has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 16, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jack Daniel Cole has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jack Daniel Cole a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 31, 2002, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert Craig Corrington has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert Craig Corrington a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

RE: Executive Clemency

Subject: Marlon Cox

Honorable Governor
State of California
Sacramento, California 95814

Attention: Governor Gray Davis

Dear Honorable Governor,

I am writing this letter as an addendum to my application to explain my circumstances during the events of my arrest, incarceration and re-arrest. Upon receiving any arrest investigation information, there may be some confusion as to the events that took place during the long span of time it took to finish completing my original sentence.

As I explained in my previous letter, I came from a divorced family. I moved to Michigan from California at the age of 9 and then to New York at the age of eleven. We moved back to California when I was fourteen. I began a career in the oil refineries in Benicia/Martinez when I was sixteen and moved out of the house when I was seventeen and began supporting myself.

I am sharing this information to inform you of facts leading up to my arrest and conviction, not to gain sympathy, although a little of that might help as well. I have noticed that a lot of people these days are blaming their childhood or other similar circumstances for their mistakes. I have come to realize that as adults we all have the ability to know the difference between right and wrong and we all have the ability to make a choice between the two, with the obvious exception of mentally disturbed people. It is up to us as adults to stop shirking our responsibilities and blaming someone else for our mistakes. I take full responsibility for my mistakes and just ask that people try to understand my circumstances and ask for forgiveness for offending the people of society.

I married at the age of twenty-three and before my wife and I had been married for a year, she asked for a separation. She did not want to deal with the responsibility of marriage. I was devastated. I was nearly on the brink of a nervous breakdown. It was at this point that I unwillingly sold marijuana to an undercover narcotics officer, as I was destitute and desperate. I was living on the road in my fathers camper and completely broke at the time. I was also very depressed at the time. I'm quite sure under normal circumstances; I would have never stooped as low as to do something like that. While my father, a retired [redacted] had tried to instill some respect for the law and a sense of responsibility, I'll admit that due to the circumstances of my upbringing, I was not a perfect role model of the ideal teenager or young adult. I was sexually molested by an uncle as a young child, and beaten and mentally abused by a stepmother who my father subsequently divorced. I was a very angry, bitter and confused teenager and by the time I was heading for divorce proceedings with my wife, I believe it was the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back.

Upon my meeting with the undercover narcotics officer, I don't believe I was in a very stable state of mind. At any rate, after my sentencing I was approached by a friend who offered the opportunity to go back to New York for a two week visit. I took him up on it and away we went. After being there for a week, my horse and all of my belongings were stolen from the ranch I had left them at for safekeeping in my hometown of [redacted] It was another devastating blow to my already fragile state of mind. I also did not have the means to return back to California. Like everything else in my life up to that point, I decided running away was the best thing at the time. That was my second big mistake.

I moved to Vermont in 1984 after having back surgery to take a break from the hectic life in New York. I was stopped for a traffic check in New York and taken in for the warrant. I did not waive extradition as I had decided it was time to stop running from my problems. All charges were dismissed except for the violation of probation.

I completed my probation with no post convictions. I am now happily married with two children. We own our own home in a very nice neighborhood. I have been a member of the Church [redacted] for four years and I have been regularly attending church since I was nineteen. I am an usher at the Church [redacted] and I also volunteer in the Sunday school child care rooms during church. I am an active FEMA Inspector and I am also an insurance and home Inspector. I perform inspections for [redacted] I am self-employed and have been since 1995. I also do contract work for [redacted] which is a contractor for the United States Consumer Protection Agency (CPSC). I occasionally work for the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Shipbuilders as a welder. As we work in Nuclear power plants, I am looking for a Pardon so as to gain entrance into such facilities without a stain on my record. I understand that I still have to state that I was convicted of a crime but I am hoping I will also be able to state that I was pardoned. I am also hoping that I can get my records sealed if at all possible. I would also like to have my firearms rights restored if possible as I like to hunt. I am also hoping to be able to work as an auxiliary officer for the [redacted] Sheriff's Office [redacted] I want to get involved in the child pornography task unit and I also want to get involved in a local teen-counselling group as a volunteer. I would also like to be involved in an anti-drug task force or campaign of some sort in as much of a capacity that I am allowed. I want to be able to try and prevent the proliferation of drugs in my community so as to prevent the likelihood that my children will be exposed to an unchecked culture of drug abuse. I want to be a private investigator also.

I thank you in advance for your consideration in my case. I have faith in God and also in your capability to make the right decision for all concerned.

Respectfully yours,

Marion Cox

Johnnie Roger Crossman

Johnnie Roger Crossman, a resident of Florida has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 28, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served five years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on July 28, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Johnnie Roger Crossman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, an order dated July 25, 1997, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Johnnie Roger Crossman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Johnnie Roger Crossman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

William John Darden

William John Darden, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 1, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of planting, harvesting, or processing marijuana. He served three years probation. He was discharged on February 1, 1997, having completed his sentence.

William John Darden has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, an order dated July 12, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, William John Darden has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to William John Darden a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Tracy Vernon Drain, a resident of Oklahoma, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 26, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 120 days jail. He was discharged on September 26, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Tracy Vernon Drain has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Tracy Vernon Drain has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Tracy Vernon Drain a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

Robert Brandon Dunn

Robert Brandon Dunn, a resident of Kentucky, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 1, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on May 1, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Robert Brandon Dunn has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated April 11, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert Brandon Dunn has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert Brandon Dunn a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Michael Andrew Edwards

Michael Andrew Edwards, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 29, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of vehicular manslaughter without gross negligence. He served five years probation, five months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on October 28, 1996, having completed his sentence.

Michael Andrew Edwards has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated December 27, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Edwards has been clean and sober for over fifteen years, and works with individuals suffering from alcohol and drug addiction. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Andrew Edwards has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Andrew Edwards a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Grace Darlene Foster (Gault)

Grace Darlene Foster, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about March 28, 1958, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery and assault with a deadly weapon. Specifically, Ms. Foster and an acquaintance robbed a bar while armed. She served three years probation. She was discharged on March 28, 1961, having completed her sentence.

Grace Darlene Foster has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mendocino, an order dated November 13, 2013, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Foster reports that she has served on the boards of directors for several local non-profit organizations. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Grace Darlene Foster has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Grace Darlene Foster a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Terry Lee Foster

Terry Lee Foster, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 27, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Fresno, for the crime of burglary and receiving stolen property. He served two years prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on May 15, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Terry Lee Foster has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated December 23, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Foster reports that he has supported the Police Activities League, the American Red Cross, and Goodwill on a regular basis. Since he was released from custody, Mr. Foster received an Associate's Degree in General Education and a Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Technology. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Terry Lee Foster has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Terry Lee Foster a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Angel Efrain Garcia

Angel Efrain Garcia, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 10, 1972, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Garcia apparently threw a whiskey bottle through the skylight of a pawn shop. He served two years, ten months probation. He was discharged on September 4, 1975, having completed his sentence.

Angel Efrain Garcia has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated November 14, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Angel Efrain Garcia has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Angel Efrain Garcia a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Joseph Gaudesi

Joseph Gaudesi, a resident of Wyoming, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 1, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served eleven months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on August 1, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Joseph Gaudesi has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joseph Gaudesi, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joseph Gaudesi a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST FOR TRADITIONAL GOVERNOR'S PARDON

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Plaintiff,

v.

JOSEPH BENJAMIN GAUDESI

Defendant and Applicant.

(LOS ANGELES COUNTY CASE NO. CIT-KA017228-01)

I, JOSEPH BENJAMIN GAUDESI, hereby declare:

1. I was born on March 16, 1969, and I currently reside in [redacted] Wyoming.

2. In 1993, I pled guilty to possessing methamphetamine for sale and to carrying a concealed weapon in my car. I was sentenced to two years in prison, but was so afraid of going to prison that I did not turn myself in. In 1996, I was arrested on a warrant after being stopped for a speeding. I then served my prison term and completed my parole without incident of any kind.

3. This offense was the culmination of a very difficult period in my life during which I became addicted to methamphetamine. I did not know where to turn for help and had no support network, so things just got worse and worse until I was sent to prison.

4. Prison was a huge wake-up call, and it also broke my addiction to methamphetamine. I resolved to get my life back on track.

5. I was paroled on July 2, 1997, and I am proud to say that I have not used methamphetamine or any other illegal drug since then, and my life has been completely law abiding.

6. Since overcoming my addiction to methamphetamine, I have been increasingly productive and successful. One month after being paroled, I obtained an entry-level job in the field of plastic injection molding. Over the next 16 years, I worked my way up to become a recognized expert in P.E.T. blow molding, and I now work for [redacted] which is considered to be the top company in the world in this field. I am proud of the work I do.

7. I have succeeded in my career despite having gone to prison, but I am increasingly turning down new opportunities for fear that my past will come to light. I take complete responsibility for the mistakes that led to my conviction in this case, but I believe that I have much more to offer the world and my past is holding me back.

Gaudesi

8. I am expecting a child [redacted] and I want to do everything in my power to give my child the best life possible. I am concerned that I will be barred from many school activities because of my past conviction, and this has motivated me to finally take the step of applying for a pardon.

9. I am now approaching my 50s. I look back at the mistakes that I made as a younger man with regret. With the exception of having fallen victim to methamphetamine and the serious problems I caused myself as a result, I have lived my life as a law-abiding and peaceful citizen. I will continue to do so.

10. I respectfully ask the Governor to grant my request for a full and unconditional pardon.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 5-1-13, 2013, in [redacted] Wyoming.

Roland Goudreau

Roland Goudreau, a resident of Florida, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 20, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served one year, one month probation. He was discharged on July 8, 1981, having completed his sentence.

Roland Goudreau has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Roland Goudreau, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Roland Goudreau a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

From Application for Clemency
RE: Roland Goudreau, continuation of reasons from pardon based on rehabilitation

Please take into consideration that I have been drug free and gainfully employed for 31 years since this single blemish on my career. A pardon would bring to an end the shame that I still feel . This single serious mistake has caused me to avoid discussions of my past for a very long time. Now, sinc the death of my brother, I would like to be the one that takes my nephews hunting and fishing onc year without having to make excuses as to why I can't hunt with them. I would also like to particip in jury duty and voting as I approach retirement age. Once again, it has been 31 years since this incident ! In all of the time since my release from probation, I have been employed in the field of aviation where I have been subject to random drug testing as mandated by the FAA and have neve had a problem. Please understand that I would have been eligible for a certificate of rehabilitation many years ago had I resided in Calif.. For these and many more personal reasons, I would appreciate serious consideration for this pardon and immediate notification of such decision to the U.S. dept of justice so that my background check for purchase of a hunting rifle would be allowed.

I am willing to provide character references on request. Thank you for your careful consideration for this request.

Jerry L. Hartman

Jerry L. Hartman, a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 16, 1966, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Luis Obispo, for the crime of check forgery. Specifically, Mr. Hartman stole some checks from his parents. He served one year, four months parole, and one year, seven months prison. He was discharged on February 25, 1969, having completed his sentence.

Jerry L. Hartman has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jerry L. Hartman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jerry L. Hartman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Lindsey Eric Haywood, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 30, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of assault with a deadly weapon, other than a firearm. Specifically, Mr. Haywood cut the hand of another man. He served three years, two months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on August 3, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Lindsey Eric Haywood has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated April 23, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Haywood is active with a local soup kitchen and a community center. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Lindsey Eric Haywood has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Lindsey Eric Haywood a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Thomas Ainsworth Hopkins

Thomas Ainsworth Hopkins, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 12, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of grand theft of property in excess of $100,000. Specifically, Mr. Hopkins failed to establish a phone and network system as promised, and instead used the amount paid for his services for personal uses. He served one year, eleven months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on April 26, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Thomas Ainsworth Hopkins has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated August 17, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Hopkins reports that he is active in his community, such as by volunteering with the local Fire Department each Christmas, and giving his time to the local animal shelter. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Thomas Ainsworth Hopkins has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Thomas Ainsworth Hopkins a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Renee Louise Howard

Renee Louise Howard, a resident of Kentucky, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 31, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crime of receiving known stolen property. Specifically, Ms. Howard stole checks and credit cards, which she attempted to use for a limousine service and to cash at a bank. She served one year, one month parole, and six months prison. She was discharged on October 8, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Renee Louise Howard has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Howard reports that she is active in her church and with her son's high school soccer team.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Renee Louise Howard has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Renee Louise Howard a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Oleane Marie Hudson

Oleane Marie Hudson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about February 16, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. She served three years probation. She was discharged on February 16, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Oleane Marie Hudson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated February 18, 2010, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Oleane Marie Hudson has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Oleane Marie Hudson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Give a brief account of your offense.

I was living with my girlfriend and her mother. I was with her mother and she sold Narcotics to an undercover officer. Being young and trying to be what I thought was "cool" at the time I said some stupid things which landed me in Jail.

Explain your rehabilitation efforts during incarceration.

Maintained good relationships with staff while on work release. No problems.

Describe your record in prison, jail, parole or probation. (List all disciplinary action taken against you)

No disciplinary action taken against me.

When were you discharged from probation or parole?

Not sure of exact date - was before 3 yr period was up

Describe your rehabilitation and activities since release.

I have not violated the law in any state since my arrest in 1986, (with the exception of a few traffic tickets over the years.) I have held the same job for 17 years and have been a good example to my children. I now live in Oregon State and wish to clear my name.

Why you are requesting a pardon?

Since I have remained a model citizen, I would like to regain my right to bear arms. I would like to take my Son hunting and would also like to clear my name. I don't feel that one mistake made so long ago when I was barely an adult should affect the rest of my life now as it does.

Justin Anthony Jones

Justin Anthony Jones, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 20, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance. He served one year, eleven months probation, and six months jail. He was discharged on June 26, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Justin Anthony Jones has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated June 3, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Justin Anthony Jones has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Justin Anthony Jones a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated November 18, 1983, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Henry David Kuykendall has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Henry David Kuykendall a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Paul Anthony Kuykendall

Paul Anthony Kuykendall, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 21, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Fresno, for the crime of inflicting corporal injury to cohabitant. Specifically, Mr. Kuykendall was apparently involved in a physical dispute with a woman from whom he rented a room. He served three years probation. He was discharged on October 21, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Paul Anthony Kuykendall has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tulare, an order dated November 15, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Kuykendall reports that he has been sober for over ten years, counsels youth in his neighborhood, and has donated his hair to help children with cancer. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Paul Anthony Kuykendall has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Paul Anthony Kuykendall a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Gregory Larsen

Gregory Larsen, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 3, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of grand theft. Specifically, Mr. Larsen appears to have allowed others to fraudulently sell vehicles under his vehicle dealer license. He served two years prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on June 23, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Gregory Larsen has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gregory Larsen, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gregory Larsen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Statement of facts

To whom it may concern,
From 1974 to 1989 I worked with my Father. He had a small Automotive Repair business that he had started in about 1940. Most of our customers at the repair shop were wholesale auto dealers. I thought I knew enough about the business to try it on my own. So I did.

In Feb of 1989 I was issued a California Dealers License. And in no time at all I had collected A group of wholesalers or (birddogs) as they are called. These are guys that buy & sell without a license. Soon I found out why they are not licensed. By using my license it made me responsible for any and all activity. Soon the trouble began. The Birddogs where buying and selling cars all over. And I found myself overwhelmed. It was impossible to keep track of everything. So I stopped all activity.

Shortly after, I was notified by [redacted] of the Bullhead City P.D. the arresting officer that I had a bit of a legal issue with the State Of California. I posted bail on 12/ 12/1990. On 01/11/1991 @ 8:30 a.m. I appeared in front of Judge Chavez division 4 of Mohave County Arizona, who released me O. R. (own recognizance) to appear on 1/25/1991@8:30 a.m. in the Ventura County Superior Court of California, Case # CR 271583 Room # 35 Judge Frederick Jones. So I did. And I entered a not guilty plea. It was recommended that I cooperate with D.D.A. [redacted] and he would recommend me for probation. A series of meetings were set up at that time. With D.D.A. [redacted] of probation department to determine if I would qualify. The recommendation was for, a negotiated plea agreement, & probation. The terms of probation would be 72 months, 365 days in work furlough & payment of restitution. See attached documents. A change of plea hearing was set for 2/01/1991 @ 8:30 A.M. in the Ventura County Superior Court of California, Room # 35 Judge Frederick Jones. At that time I entered a guilty plea for the charge of grand theft. The probation hearing was set for 4/5/91@ 8:30 A.M. in the Ventura County Superior Court of California, Room # 35 Judge Frederick Jones. Probation was denied By Judge Jones and the sentencing hearing was set 5/3/1991@8:30 in the Ventura County Superior Court of California, Room # 35 Judge Frederick Jones. I found guilty of grand theft and was order to pay 100.00 dollars of restitution to the State restitution found. And I was sentenced to 4 years State prison. My release date was 6/23/94. I was released approximently 1 year early for my participation in the inmate work program. (See attach court documents for all names, dates, fines, and locations).

At this time I have had no legal issues and have fulfilled all Fines restitution and conditions of parole. This Statement is true and accurate to the best of my recollection.

Esteban Daniel Lopez

Esteban Daniel Lopez, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 22, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crimes of possession of a controlled substance for sale, possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale, and transportation of a controlled substance for sale. He served five years probation, and 365 days jail. He was discharged on May 22, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Esteban Daniel Lopez has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, an order dated February 27, 2012, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Esteban Daniel Lopez has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Esteban Daniel Lopez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Michael John Lyons

Michael John Lyons, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 16, 1978, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Lyons robbed a convenience store. He served one year, eight months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on April 1, 1980, having completed his sentence.

Michael John Lyons has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated December 3, 2002, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Lyons currently works as a substance abuse counselor. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael John Lyons has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael John Lyons a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Ronald Mattsson

Ronald Mattsson, a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 19, 1977, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Mattsson broke into the real estate office where he was employed. He served six months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on March 30, 1979, having completed his sentence.

Ronald Mattsson has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Mattsson is a Celebrate Recovery sponsor and volunteer mechanic for the fire department. The deputy district attorney who originally prosecuted him noted that Mr. Mattsson has "completely turned his life around since the original offense in Santa Barbara many, many years ago."

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Ronald Mattsson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Ronald Mattsson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Additional Information in regard to Application for Clemency

The felony offense of which I was convicted involved my breaking into the real estate office where I was employed. When I got to prison, prison officials decided after interviewing me to keep me in the reception center to serve my sentence. During that time, I worked in the personnel kitchen preparing meals for the prison guards. After expressing a desire to pursue waste water treatment upon my release, I was sent to work in the prisons' waste water treatment plant. I completed a college correspondence course in waste water treatment and I earned a certificate as a waste water plant treatment operator I. A copy of the certificate can be sent if it would help my application.

I have been married to the same woman to whom I was married when I went to prison. We have successfully raised four children, one of whom is involved in youth ministry. I have worked successfully as a heavy equipment mechanic. I am a homeowner in [redacted] Texas. I have coached youth soccer for many years and was named coach of the year for seven consecutive years. I attend church regularly and am involved in my church's Celebrate Recovery Project as a sponsor. I also am a volunteer mechanic for the [redacted] Volunteer Fire Department.

I would like to return to school to pursue a career as a state Parole Officer. I have worked for the past three decades to live an honest life and to set a good example for my four children.

Michael Garcia McCarthy

Michael Garcia McCarthy, a resident of North Carolina, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 21, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of cultivation of marijuana. He served three years probation. He was discharged on February 21, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Michael Garcia McCarthy has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Garcia McCarthy, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michael Garcia McCarthy a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

PARDON BASED ON REHABILITATION
Complete this section if you have completed your sentence, you are requesting clemency based upon rehabilitation and you are not eligible for a Certificate of Rehabilitation under Penal Code section 4852.01.

Give a brief account of your offense. I was growing marijuana in a house I rented in San Jose, California. I was raided by Santa Clara County Sheriff's Department. It was of the large closet variety.They were just small clones but there were quite a few (less than 100 plants). I never grew the plants with the intent to sell them but the amount was way more than what was an acceptable amount of plants for personal use. Therefore, I was charged with Possession for Sales.
Explain your rehabilitation efforts during incarceration. While incarcerated, I made a decision that my actions were wrong, regardless of my reasons for doing it.
Then and there, I decided that I would completely change my life and never commit anything that was illegal ever again.
Describe your record in prison, jail, parole or probation. (List all disciplinary action taken against you) I never had an incident report while incarcerated and was released with a perfect record.
When were you discharged from probation or parole? I completed my probation without violation and was discharged on 02/21/1995.
Describe your rehabilitation and activities since release. For the last twenty years I have focused on family and career. I have raised four beautiful children to whom I have devoted my life. Although my wife died of cancer in 2004, my family has endured. My three sons have graduated from high school and are attending college. My daughter is a freshman in high school and preparing to attend college as well. I am very prooud of them. I work hard, pay my taxes, and support my community. I have always held decent jobs, volunteered, and supported my family. A Pardon for my past mistakes would help make my life complete.
Why you are requesting a pardon? By my actions I show that I have completely changed my life. I wish to move forward and seek more challenging vocations. I am not proud of my past behaviors and I fully intend to stay on the right path. I have lived a productive and meaningful life despite setbacks caused by my own poor judgment and a family tragedy.
I wish to be able to tell my children that I am no longer a felon. Thank you for your consideration.

Myrle D. McLernon

Myrle D. McLernon, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 16, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served five years probation. He was discharged on April 16, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Myrle D. McLernon has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated March 14, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Myrle D. McLernon has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Myrle D. McLernon a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

She served three years probation, and one year jail. She was discharged on June 3, 1993, having completed her sentence.

Julie Lauren Millman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Francisco, an order dated October 27, 2003, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Julie Lauren Millman has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Julie Lauren Millman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

John Joseph Moore

John Joseph Moore, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 19, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Humboldt, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Mr. Moore apparently applied for public assistance without listing all of the property that he owned. He served five years, eight months probation. He was discharged on April 9, 2001, having completed his sentence.

John Joseph Moore has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Moore is active in his church, and is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician and volunteer firefighter.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Joseph Moore has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. CIRCUMSTANCES OF YOUR OFFENSE

I HAVE BEEN WORKING SINCE I WAS 13 YEARS OLD. I HAVE NEVER WANTED TO BE A CRIMINAL, INFACT, MY OWN FATHER WAS A SERGEANT AT A CALIF. CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION. I HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A PRODUCTIVE MEMBER OF SOCIETY. I HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED IN THE HARD WORK ETHIC,THAT NOTHING COMES EASY.

IN OCTOBER, 1990, A LEVERAGE BY-OUT CLOSED THE H.V.A.C. WHOLE-SALE PARTS STORE THAT I HAD BEEN MANAGING FOR 12 MONTHS. PRIOR TO THAT, I HAD BEEN A COMMERCIAL REFRIGERATION CONTRACTOR IN THE HUMBOLDT COUNTY AREA, THE SAME AREA THAT THE STORE WAS IN.

WHEN THE STORE CLOSED, I LOST A TWO THOUSAND DOLLAR A MONTH JOB WITH NO NOTICE. I HAD ALSO INJURED MY BACK PRIOR TO THE STORE CLOSING, BUT I DID NOT MAKE AN INCIDENT OUT OF IT. I THOUGHT THEY WOULD FIRE ME INSTEAD OF ALLOW ME ANY RECUPERATION TIME. THIS WAS A PHYSICALLY DEMANDING JOB AND THERE WAS NOBODY TO TAKE MY PLACE WHILE I RECUPERATED. PLUS, I HAD ALREADY FORFEITED MY BUSINESS CUSTOMERS, REQUIRED, IN ORDER, TO GET THIS JOB. I HAD NO DISABILITY OR UNEMPLOYMENT TO FALL BACK ON, SO OUT OF DESPERATION; TO FEED MY CHILDREN AND WIFE, I APPLIED FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE. I DID NOT ANSWER ALL OF THE QUESTIONS TRUTHFULLY OR THOROUGHLY ENOUGH AND I AND MY ENTIRE FAMILY (WIFE AND CHILDREN) WERE PUNISHED SEVERELY.

ON OUR APPLICATION FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE, THERE WAS A QUESTION, "CAN YOU USE OR DO YOU OWN ANYTHING WORTH A HUNDRED DOLLARS OR MORE?" I ANSWERED NO TO THIS AND WAS CONVICTED OF 7 FELONY COUNTS OF PERJURY ON MY WELFARE FORM. MY WIFE GOT THE SAME. I GOT THREE FELONY COUNTS FOR NOT LISTING MY FIREARMS COLLEC-TION FOR THREE YEARS.

FOR 3 YEARS I DID NOT REPORT A 1974 WELL USED BACKHOE THAT MY MOTHER AND I FINANCED,(PRIOR TO APPLYING FOR ASSISTANCE), THRU FORD CREDIT. MY MOTHER MADE AND KEPT UP WITH ALL THE PAYMENTS, WHILE WE WERE ON ASSISTANCE, SO THE BACKHOE WOULD NOT BE LOST AND SO SHE COULD FINISH THE WORK THAT WAS STARTED ON HER PROPERTY,

John Moore 8-23-2002

WHICH IS THE ONLY REASON THAT THE BACKHOE NEEDED TO BE PURCHASED IN THE FIRST PLACE.

FOR THREE YEARS I DID NOT REPORT INCOME FROM PART TIME JOBS. THE FIRST YEAR WAS THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS, EXPENSES DISALLOWED BY WELFARE FOR NOT REPORTING IN THE FIRST PLACE. THE SECOND YEAR WAS FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS(EXPENSES DISALLOWED). THE THIRD YEAR WAS ELEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS(EXPENSES DISALLOWED). THIS WAS ONE FELONY COUNT. THIS COUNT WAS REDUCED TO A MISDEMEANOR WHEN THE OTHER COUNTS WERE EXPUNGED.

WE LATER FOUND OUT FROM CASE WORKERS, THAT THE GAIN PROGRAM THAT I SIGNED UP FOR IN ORDER FOR WELFARE TO HELP ME GET HIRED IN A PROFESSION, THAT I HAD MY OWN TOOLS FOR, WAS BANKRUPT AND "NEVER FLEW" SAID A RETIRED CASE WORKER AND INVESTIGATOR. I WAS WAITING AND HOPING FOR SOMETHING THAT WOULD HAVE NEVER HAPPENED THE WAY I WAS TOLD IT WOULD HAVE.

I WAS WRONG, I SHOULD HAVE BEEN TRUTHFUL, THOUGH IT WOULD HAVE DISQUALIFIED US FOR THE PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND CHILDRENS MEDICAL THAT WE NEEDED BADLY.

THEN, JUST SEVEN DAYS AFTER WE WERE RAIDED, THE 20 YEAR OLD RULES AND QUIDELINES WERE CHANGED. WE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN VIOLATING THE RULES OR GOTTEN CONVICTED ON THESE RULE VIOLATIONS BECAUSE WELFARE RAISED THE AMOUNT OF INCOME YOU COULD MAKE, AND STILL BE ELIGIBLE, TO UP TO SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS A MONTH AFTER EXPENSES WERE DEDUCTED OR TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION.

I COULD HAVE USED THIS MONEY TO GO TO THE COLLEGE OF THE REDWOODS AND TAKE THE PEACE OFFICERS TRAINING COURSE. THEN, I COULD HAVE GOTTEN THE JOB WITH THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE OR HIGHWAY PATROL THAT I HAD APPLIED FOR.

John Moore 8-23-2002

THE NEW RULES STATED THAT INSTEAD OF ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN ASSETS- I COULD HAVE HAD UP TO FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN ASSETS AND CASH ON HAND. THIS NEW RULE WOULD HAVE TOTALLY QUALIFIED US FOR ELIGIBILITY AND WE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN VIOLATING ANY RULES UNDER THE NEW GUIDELINES.

THIS NEW RULE WOULD HAVE ALLOWED MY FIREARM COLLECTION TO BE WITHIN THE ASSET ELIGIBILITY RANGE. WELFARE APPRAISED MY FIREARMS AT FORTY EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS AND THE NEW GUIDELINES SAID I COULD HAVE HAD UP TO FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS IN ASSETS, PLUS YOUR EXEMPTED, NECESSARY HOUSEHOLD ASSETS.

EVEN AFTER WE REPAID ALL OUR RESTITUTION FOR, EARLIER, "BEING OVER THE ASSET LIMIT", (INELIGIBLE), THE WELFARE DEPARTMENT DID NOT RETURN MY FIREARMS. THEY TOLD US THEY COULD NOT RECOVER THE FIREARMS AFTER SOME DRUG ADDICT JANITORS, THAT HAD CRIMINAL RECORDS, BUT WERE STILL HIRED BY THE COURT HOUSE, HAD STOLEN A BUNCH OF DRUGS AND WEAPONS OUT OF THE PROPERTY ROOM/EVIDENCE ROOM OF THE DISRICT ATTORNEYS OFFICE, WHERE OUR STUFF WAS BEING KEPT. THIS MADE HEADLINE NEWS IN THE LOCAL PAPERS OF HUMBOLDT COUNTY AND THE SURROUNDING AREAS. MY ATTORNEY WAS ALSO REPRESENTING THESE THIEVES IN THEIR CRIMINAL CASE. THEY PLEAD GUILTY AND RECEIVED PROBATION. WE PAID OFF THE RESTITION AND NEVER GOT THAT EVIDENCE BACK AS PROMISED, VERBALLY, BY THE WELFARE INVESTIGATORS. I FEEL WE PAID TWICE.

THE BACKHOE THAT WAS BOUGHT, SOLELY, FOR USE ON MY MOTHER'S PROPERTY AND PURCHASED PRIOR TO GOING ON WELFARE, WAS VERY USED AND OLD AND NOT EASILY LIQUIDATABLE. WE WERE ONLY ABLE TO PROVIDE CASE WORKERS WITH A WRITTEN AND VERBAL CONTRACT THAT THE BACKHOE BELONGED TO MOM, ALSO, PAYMENT RECEIPTS. IN ORDER TO NOT BE CONVICTED OF OWNERSHIP OF THIS ASSET, WELFARE SAID THAT, "WE SHOULD HAVE PROVIDED A NOTORIZED DOCUMENT TRANSFERING OWNERSHIP," TO OUR SOCIAL WORKER. THEN WE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF THIS RULE VIOLATION, THEN OR NOW.

John Moore 8-23-2002

ALOT OF THIS SITUATION COULD HAVE BEEN HANDLED BY CONFRONTING US AND DEALING WITH IT ON A DEPARTMENT ADMINISTRATIVE LEVEL. WE WOULD HAVE THOROUGHLY COOPERATED. WHEN MY ATTORNEY ASKED THE LEAD INVESTIGATOR, ON THE STAND, WHY INVESTIGATORS DID NOT HANDLE IT THIS WAY, THEY RESPONDED, "IT WOULD HAVE BLOWN OUR COVER". THIS IS IN OUR TRANSCRIPT AND AVAILABLE ON REQUEST.

SO, THESE NEW RULES BECAME EFFECTIVE 7 DAYS AFTER WE WERE RAIDED BY A 13 MAN SWAT TEAM, TERRORIZING MY FAMILY BY KEEPING THEM HANDCUFFED FOR 8 HOURS, AS THEY SEARCHED FOR EVIDENCE THAT WE HAD "LIED" ON THE WELFARE FORMS.

WE WERE CONVICTED UNDER THE OLD RULES AND ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES, BUT 7 DAYS LATER, WE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN CONVICTED. I FEEL THIS IS A GOOD REASON FOR A PARDON. IT HAS BEEN SINCE 1994 AND HAS BEEN A HARDSHIP ON US AS A FAMILY. THERE ARE A LOT OF GOOD JOBS THAT MY WIFE OR I COULD QUALIFY FOR TO HELP GET OUR LIVES BACK TO NORMAL. WITH THIS HANGING OVER OUR HEADS, CONTINUALLY, IT MEANS CONSTANTLY, BEING TURNED DOWN FOR EVERY THING YOU ARE WELL QUALIFIED FOR OR EDUCATED IN. THIS IS ONE OF THE MAIN REASONS I REQUEST THIS PARDON.

IN ORDER TO RECEIVE NINE HUNDRED DOLLARS A MONTH, UNDER THE PRE 1994 RULES THAT CONVICTED US , YOU HAD TO BE ENROLLED IN THE GAIN PROGRAM, CONTINUALLY APPLYING FOR WORK (WHICH I DID FAITHFULLY), AND BASICALLY SIT HOME AND NOT WORK OR YOU WOULD NOT BE ELIGIBLE FOR ASSISTANCE FOR YOUR FAMILY.

I APPLYED FOR JOB TRAINING PROGRAMS FOR THREE YEARS WHILE ON THE GAIN PROGRAM. I WAS CONTINUALLY TURNED DOWN BECAUSE I WAS A [redacted] MAN IN THE HOME. MY WIFE WAS TAUNTED BY SOCIAL WORKERS THAT IF SHE DIVORCED ME, THAT SHE WOULD HAVE A MUCH BETTER CHANCE OF GETTING IN WITH A JOB TRAINING PROGRAM- NURSING PROGRAM AT THE COLLEGE OF THE REDWOODS. SHE REFUSED TO DIVORCE ME AND PLAY A GAME LIKE THAT AND WAS SUBSEQUENTLY DENIED JOB TRAINING PROGRAMS.

John Moore 9-23-2002

I WAS FRUSTRATED WITH THE OLD RULES THAT PROHIBITED WORKING IN ORDER TO RECEIVE AFDC BENEFITS. I CIRCUMVENTED THESE RULES AND WAS PUNISHED SEVERELY. I WAS REHIBILITATING MYSELF AND RE-ESTABLISHING MY WORK RESUME, WHICH WAS , BASICALLY, AGAINST WELFARE'S RULES. BY RE-ESTABLISHING MY WORK RESUME IN THE MANNER THAT I DID, PRIOR TO 1994, WHICH WAS AGAINST THE PRIOR 1994 AFDC RULES, I WAS ABLE TO QUALIFY FOR THE JOB THAT I HAVE NOW AND THAT I WAS ABLE TO GET AFTER BEING ARRESTED AND TERMINATED FROM WELFARE IN 1994. THIS JOB CAME 4 MONTHS AFTER BEING TERMINATED FROM WELFARE AND WAS NOT AVAILABLE FOR THE 3 YEARS PRIOR TO 1994.

DESCRIBE YOUR EMPLOYMENT

I WAS HIRED BY [redacted] AS AN H.V.A.C. AND APPLIANCE MECHANIC. I HAVE WORKED FOR [redacted] FOR 7.5 YEARS AND NOW MAKE 17 DOLLARS AN HOUR. THIS IS A GOOD CAREER. ON A DAILY BASIS, I DRIVE A SERVICE VAN, UP TO 200 MILES A DAY. I PROFESSIONALLY INTERACT WITH HOMEOWNERS ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS. IN SOME CASES, TRUSTED TO ENTER HOMES OF THE CUSTOMERS WHILE THEY ARE AT WORK OR OUT OF THE HOME, IN ORDER TO REPAIR MAJOR APPLIANCES OR AIRCONDITIONING.

I AM A TRUSTED AND VALUABLE MEMBER OF [redacted] TEAM IN [redacted] IDAHO.

John Moore 8-23-2002

WHY IS A PARDON DESIRED OR NEEDED?

WE ARE NOT THE CRIMINALS THAT WE HAVE BEEN STIGMATIZED AS SUCH. WE HAVE NEVER BEEN CONVICTED OF ANY VIOLENT CRIMES. OUR CONVICTIONS WERE ADMINISTRATIVE RULE VIOLATIONS THAT CARRIED AN ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY OR A CRIMINAL PENALTY, WHICH OUR CASE WAS DEALT WITH CRIMINALLY AND IN THE COURTS.

WE HAVE REPAID THE COUNTY OF HUMBOLDT ALL THE MONEY,FOR 3yrs.,WE EVER RECEIVED ON WELFARE(30 THOUSAND DOLLARS, IN CASH) PLUS, THE LOSS OF THE FIREARM COLLECTION. THERE WAS NEVER ANY INTENTION TO USE THE FIREARMS IN A CRIMINAL MANNER. YOU CAN SEE THAT THIS WAS EVIDENT IN OUR CONCEALED WEAPONS PERMITS THAT THE SHERIFF, HIMSELF, HAD GRANTED US. THIS WAS ALSO ON A PERSONAL BASIS BECAUSE HE PERSONALLY KNEW US. IN FACT, HE WAS NOT NOTIFIED THAT THIS RAID WAS GOING TO TAKE PLACE. HE TOLD US AND OUR ATTORNEYS THIS FACT.

WE BELIEVED IN RESPONSIBLE, LEGAL GUN OWNERSHIP. MY BACK-GROUND AND TRAINING HAVE ALWAYS BEEN TO HELP THE COMMUNITY WHEN CALLED TO SERVE.

I WANT TO HELP MY COMMUNITY BY WORKING FOR AND JOINING THE LOCAL SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENTS SEARCH AND RESCUE TEAM. I AM A CERTIFIED SEARCH AND RESCUE DIVER. THIS IS A VERY NECESSARY RESCUE SKILL HERE BY THE RAGING RIVERS THAT RUN PARALLEL WITH 95 PERCENT OF OUR HIGHWAYS AND ROADS. I WOULD ALSO LIKE TO RUN FOR POLITICAL OFFICE, LOCALLY, AND HELP POOR PEOPLE AVOID OUR FATE. I WANT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE PRISON MINISTRY THAT OUR CHURCH, [redacted] OUTREACH TO IN COTTON WOOD , IDAHO AND OROFINO, IDAHO PRISONS. I WANT TO SAY "YES, I HAVE LIED BEFORE ON MY WELFARE FORM, BUT I WILL NEVER LIE AGAIN, I HAVE LEARNED MY LESSON, I WAS PUNISHED SEVERELY, AND HAVE RECEIVED A PARDON."

Michelle Denise Moore

Michelle Denise Moore, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about July 19, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Humboldt, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Ms. Moore apparently applied for public assistance without listing all of the property that she owned. She served three years probation. She was discharged on July 19, 1998, having completed her sentence.

Michelle Denise Moore has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Moore is active in her church, and is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician and volunteer firefighter. In 2013 she was commended for her volunteer efforts by the United States Bureau of Land Management.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Michelle Denise Moore has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michelle Denise Moore a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF MY OFFENSE:

IN 1991, MY HUSBAND, JOHN MOORE, LOST HIS JOB THAT PAID $2000.00 A MONTH INCOME. PAMECO-AIRE CLOSED MANY STORES ON THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST, WITHOUT GIVING ANY NOTICE TO THE STORE MANAGERS, WHICH IS WHAT JOHN WAS. JOHN WAS TRYING TO COPE WITH AND RECUPERATE FROM A SEVERE BACK INJURY, THAT MADE, DOCTOR-ORDERED BED-REST, DIFFICULT TO IGNORE. HE WAS UNDER-GOING DOCTOR CARE AND THERAPY.

WE APPLIED FOR WELFARE BECAUSE WE HAD THE WELL-BEING OF TWO BABIES. SOCIAL WORKERS TOLD US THAT WE COULD GREATLY BENEFIT FROM THE GAIN PROGRAM, WHICH WAS A JOB TRAINING PROGRAM, LIKE NURSING SCHOOL AT THE COLLEGE OF THE REDWOODS, FOR ME, AND PLACEMENT FOR MY PROFESSIONALLY TRAINED HUSBAND WHO HAD ALL OF HIS OWN TOOLS;OR, GAIN COULD RETRAIN HIM IN A SIMILAR FIELD AND GUARANTEE HIM A JOB THAT COULD HELP US GET OFF OF WELFARE. INCIDENTALLY, AT OUR TRIAL, A CASE WORKER ADMITTED THAT THE GAIN PROGRAM "NEVER FLEW" BECAUSE OF A LACK OF FUND-ING. WE HAD SIGNED UP FOR AND HAD FAITH IN A PROGRAM THAT NEVER WOULD FOLLOW THROUGH WITH WHAT SOCIAL WORKERS TOLD US IT WOULD DO FOR US. THIS AWAKENING IS DOCUMENTED IN OR COURT TRANS-CRIPTS.

WITHOUT HAVING ANY KNOWLEDGE TO THIS UNTIL OUR TRIAL, I HAD SIGNED UP FOR THIS PROGRAM SEVERAL TIMES WITH THE REASSURANCE AND ASSISTANCE FROM QUALIFIED GAIN SOCIAL WORKERS. I FEEL I WAS CONTINUALLY DENIED BECAUSE I WAS MARRIED TO A MAN. I CONCLUDED THIS WHEN A SOCIAL WORKER LAUGHED AND SAID THAT IF I WAS A SINGLE MOTHER I WOULD BE IN SCHOOL RIGHT NOW.

WE LIVED IN A 1969 DETERIORATING MOBIL HOME IN THE REDWOODS WITH ALL THE DAMPNESS AND MOLD THAT GOES WITH IT. THE MOLD WAS MAKING US SICK. MY HUSBAND HAD HAD THIS JOB AT PAMECO-AIRE FOR ONLY SIX MONTHS AND HAD TO WORK UP TO MAKING THAT $2000.00 A MONTH. WE CAME SO CLOSE TO BEING ABLE TO CHANGE OUR LIVING CONDITIONS, AND THEN, THE CLOSING OF THE PAMECO-AIRE STORE KNOCKED US BACK.

ON OUR WELFARE FORMS, WE DID NOT LIST OUR FIREARMS. MOST PEOPLE IN THIS AREA FELT THESE WERE NECESSARY ITEMS LIVING ON MANY ACRES IN THE WOODS WITH LOTS OF CRITTERS. WE STAYED ON FAMILY OWNED 14 ACRES. WE DID NOT REPORT MY HUSBANDS OLD BACKHOE. WE "OWNED OR COULD USE THINGS", AS THE FORM STATED IT. THESE ITEMS MISLED THE WELFARE DEPT. AND WOULD HAVE MADE US INELIGIBLE FOR WELFARE BENEFITS, AT THAT TIME.

SEVEN DAYS AFTER WE WERE RAIDED AND ARRESTED, NEW WELFARE RULES AND GUIDELINES CAME INTO EFFECT. THESE WERE TO REPLACE THE 20 YEAR OLD RULES IN WHICH WE WERE CHARGED WITH VIOLATING. ASSET AND INCOME GUIDELINES WENT UP. WE WOULD HAVE FELL WITHIN THE NEW GUIDELINES AND NEVER HAD VIOLATED ANYTHING AS FAR AS ASSET VALUES.

Michelle Moore Sept. 1, 2002

I WISH WE HAD BEEN MORE DETAILED AND PRECISE ABOUT OUR FACTS ON OUR WELFARE FORMS. OUR CASE COULD HAVE BEEN HANDLED BY ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION INSTEAD OF CRIMINALLY. ALSO DOCUMENTED IN OUR TRIAL TRANSCRIPTS WERE THE WELFARE INVESTIGATOR ANSWERING THE QUESTION OF WHY THEY DID HANDLE IT CRIMINALLY INSTEAD OF BY ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION AND SHE SAID, "BECAUSE WE DID NOT WANT TO BLOW OUR COVER ON THE SURVEILANCE." BUT THIS ALL COULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED IF WE HAD FILLED OUT THE FORMS WITH TOTALLY DETAILED TRUTH. IT REALLY NEGATIVELY IMPACTED OUR LIVES AND THE LIVES OF OUR CHILDREN. IT HAS HUMBLED ME. I AM TRULY SORRY AND HAVE LEARNED A GREAT LESSON AND SHARE THIS WITH OTHERS ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF DETAIL AND TRUTH.

BRIEFLY DESCRIBE MY EMPLOYMENT AND ACTIVITIES SINCE MY RELEASE:

I HAVE BEEN A FULL TIME MOTHER TO RAISE OUR CHILDREN WITH GOOD FAMILY MORALS. I STRIVE TO SET GOOD EXAMPLES FOR THE CHILDREN AND BE ON TOP OF THEIR EVERY MOVES. I HAVE BEEN A PART OF OUR CHILDREN'S DAILY LIVES AND PARTICIPATED WITH COUNSELORS, SCHOOL OFFICIALS AND OUR CHURCH PASTORS AND YOUTH GROUPS. I AM THANKFUL THAT I WAS THERE AND ARE STILL THERE FOR OUR CHILDREN. I AM THANKFUL FOR RECEIVING PROBATION WITH SUSPENDED PRISON TIME. WE FEEL WE HAVE BEEN QUITE SUCCESSFUL, SO FAR, IN HELPING OUR CHILDREN OVER COME AND MANAGE ANXIETY, ANGER AND ATTENTION DISORDERS. COUNSELORS DIRECTLY RELATE OUR CHILDREN'S DISORDERS TO CHILDHOOD TRAUMATIZATION OF THE MANNER, IN WHICH, THE WELFARE DEPT. EXECUTED THE ARMED 14 MAN S.W.A.T. TEAM RAID ON US AND KEPT US HAND-CUFFED AND SEPARATED FROM OUR CHILDREN FOR 8 HOURS THAT DAY. THAT IS WHAT I MEAN WHEN I SAY OUR CRIME NEGATIVELY IMPACTED OUR LIVES AND THE LIVES OF OUR CHILDREN.

THERE WERE MANY THINGS THAT OUR CHILDREN SAW OTHER FAMILIES DOING THAT WE COULD NOT. THEY DID NOT UNDERSTAND. COUNSELORS WORKED WITH THEM TO HELP THEM VENT THEIR FEELINGS IN VARIOUS HEALTHFUL WAYS. WE ARE VERY PROUD OF OUR BOYS AND HOW THEY ARE TURNING OUT AND CONTRIBUTING TO MAKING SOCIETY A BETTER PLACE. OUR OLDEST BOY IS IN A YOUTH GROUP TO KEEP OTHER KIDS ON TRACK. HE PLAYS ACOUSTIC AND ELECTRIC, INSPIRATIONAL, GUITAR MUSIC WITH OUR CHURCH BAND. HE WRITES SONGS AND MUSIC ALSO. OUR YOUNGEST SON IS VERY INTERESTED AND IS LEARNING EVERYTHING ABOUT JOHN'S TRADE THAT HE CAN. HE IS A GREAT YOUNG MECHANIC AND MANY ADULTS TRUST AND RELY ON HIS CAPABILITIES. WHEN WE CAN NOT FIX SOMETHING, GENERALLY, HE CAN. HE IS GREAT WITH GAS ENGINES AND LOVES TO BE REVERED BY ADULTS. IT MAKES HIM FEEL REAL IMPORTANT, AND HE IS.

BRIEFLY DESCRIBE WHY A PARDON IS DESIRED OR NEEDED:

I NEED THIS PARDON... TO PUT THIS ALL BEHIND ME NOW AND MOVE ON AND CONTRIBUTE MY ABILITIES TO THIS COMMUNITY, THAT I LOVE AND CARE FOR. THERE ARE GOOD PEOPLE IN THIS SMALL COMMUNITY THAT WE LIVE IN AND THE COUNTY AND SCHOOL SYSTEM HAS ASKED ME SEVERAL TIMES TO APPLY FOR CERTAIN JOBS THAT THEY SEE I AM QUALIFIED FOR BY WORKING WITH ME ON A VOLUNTEER BASIS.

I HAVE SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED PROBATION AND PAID FULL RESTITUTION BACK TO THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. WE HAVE SATISFIED THE JUDGEMENT. ASSETS WERE SEIZED AND AND SUPPOSED TO BE SOLD BY THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE BUT OUR LAWYER SADLY INFORMED US THAT OUR ASSETS WERE STOLLEN IN THAT OFFICE BY WORKERS THAT HAD PRIOR CRIMINAL RECORDS. WE HAVE THAT NEWSPAPER ARTICLE AND WRITTEN CORRESPONDENCE FROM OUR LAWYER REGARDING THIS. WE HAVE BEEN GRANTED AN EXPUNGEMENT BUT THIS DOES NOT KEEP EMPLOYERS OR INTERVIEWERS FROM DENYING US EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS THAT WE QUALIFY FOR, DUE TO SEEING A NON-VIOLENT,CRIMINAL RECORD. WE HAVE LEARNED THE DOWNFALLS OF EXPUNGEMENT VERSES A PARDON.

MY FINACIAL CONTRIBUTION TO OUR FAMILY IS GREATLY NEEDED NOW. OUR BOYS ARE GETTING THEIR DRIVING PERMITS AND LICENSES AND AUTO INSURANCE AND ARE PREPARING FOR COLLEGE EDUCATIONS. MY VOLUNTEER WORK WITH THE SCHOOL SYSTEM, THAT I KNOW SO WELL, DOES NOT BRING IN THE INCOME THAT IS SO NEEDED OF ME. OUR CHILDREN ARE OLDER NOW AND I NEED A CAREER NOW. THIS IS NOT POSSIBLE WITH THIS FELONY CONVICTION, EVEN WITH AN EXPUNGEMENT, I HAVE BEEN TOLD. I AM TAKING A SMALL COMPUTER CLASS AT NIGHT FROM OUR LOCAL HIGHSCHOOL. THIS SHOULD HELP, TOO.

WE HAVE WORKED HARD TO PAY OUR DEBT AND BE GOOD CITIZENS AND PARENTS AND KEEP THE FAMILY AFLOAT AS WE WORKED THROUGH THIS LEGALLY. I AM REQUESTING, OF YOU, PLEASE TO GRANT US A PARDON AND HELP US PUT THIS BEHIND US, ONCE AND FOR ALL.

IT HAS BEEN A LONG ROAD AND I AM FINALLY AT THIS POSITION TO REQUEST A PARDON FROM YOU. THANKYOU, VERY MUCH, FOR TAKING THE TIME TO READ WHAT I WANTED TO TELL YOU IN THIS REQUEST FOR A PARDON.

SINCERELY,

Michael Joseph Moradian Jr.

Michael Joseph Moradian Jr., a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 19, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Moradian took expensive wine out of a wine cellar and drank it. He served three years probation. He was discharged on November 19, 1989, having completed his sentence.

Michael Joseph Moradian Jr. has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, an order dated March 24, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Michael Joseph Moradian Jr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

James Richard Mullins

James Richard Mullins, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 19, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of driving under the influence. He served four months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on September 28, 1991, having completed his sentence.

James Richard Mullins has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated July 06, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Mullins reports that he participated in a substance abuse treatment program and is active in his church. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Richard Mullins has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Richard Mullins a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Response to Direct Pardon application question #3

Dear Governor Brown,

First and foremost I feel ashamed and embarrassed by what I have done. I have a beautiful Wife and two children, my Son [redacted] and my Daughter [redacted] who know nothing of their Daddy's conviction. If I am granted a Pardon this will provide me with a fresh start, new opportunities, and advancements in my career and eliminate the need for further explanations and additional embarrassment. Additionally after training for approximately two years (evenings after my day job, weekend nights with no compensation) with several local firework display companies I am unable to test for my pyrotechnic certification again due to my felony conviction.

Sincerely,

Michael L. Nassar

Re: People v. Michael L. Nassar
Case #VA052713

To whom it may concern:

I am an attorney, licensed to practice law in the state of California. I am employed as a Head Deputy for the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office. I am writing this letter on behalf of my prior client Michael L. Nassar.

In 1999, Mr. Nassar was represented by the L.A. County Public Defender's office on a charge of H&S 11351.5 in the Southeast District of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, case no. VA052713.

When I became Mr. Nassar's new counsel in 2002, his case had already been resolved and he was on probation. A review of Mr. Nassar's file revealed that he was eligible for relief under Penal Code Sections 1203.3 and 1203.4 (copies attached).

On June 2, 2002, due to Mr. Nassar's superb performance on probation and mitigating circumstances surrounding his case, the Honorable Judge Dewey Falcone granted Mr. Nassar's request for relief. Mr. Nassar's probation was terminated, his plea was set aside, a plea of not guilty was entered and all allegations against Mr. Nassar were dismissed pursuant to PC 1203.3 and 1203.4 (see attached minute order).

Since then, I have conversed with Mr. Nassar on numerous occasions by telephone and by email and have found him to be friendly, respectful and responsible.

Nassar

Ed,

This purpose of this e-mail is to bring to your attention the status of Mike Nassar's professional credentials. Yesterday Mike passed the International Code Council's (ICC) Commercial Mechanical Inspector test. By passing this one ICC certification he has opened the door of achievement for an additional five (5) more certifications. After which Mike will have nineteen (19) ICC certifications. I am confident that the business owners, visitors and citizens of Goodyear will directly benefit as a result of Mike's efforts. Please feel free to extend congratulations to Mike for this accomplishment.

James Lee Olson

James Lee Olson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 22, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served five months probation, nine months prison, and one year, nine months parole. He was discharged on October 26, 1994, having completed his sentence.

James Lee Olson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated December 13, 2005, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Lee Olson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Lee Olson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Edward Wayne Peevey

Edward Wayne Peevey, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 3, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Nevada, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served four years probation. He was discharged on June 3, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Edward Wayne Peevey has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Nevada, an order dated February 7, 2005, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Edward Wayne Peevey has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Edward Wayne Peevey a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Juan Ponce

Juan Ponce, a resident of Utah, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 25, 2001, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crimes of possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale and transportation of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation. He was discharged on June 25, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Juan Ponce has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Juan Ponce, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Juan Ponce a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

James L. Previti

James L. Previti, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 26, 1992 in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of burglary, and was sentenced to Civil Addict Commitment. On or about September 29, 1993 he was sentenced in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crimes of possessing a controlled substance and receiving stolen property and was sentenced to four years, four months in prison to be served concurrently. He served one year, nine months in prison and four years, four months on parole. He was discharged on October 29, 1994, having completed his sentence.

James L. Previti has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated July 23, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Previti has operated his own businesses since 2002 and established the John P. Previti Memorial Foundation, which has donated more than one million dollars to non-profit groups. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Previti's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended him for a pardon on February 14, 2014. Mr. Previti also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on April 16, 2014, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James L. Previti has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James L. Previti a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Refugio Mercado Rosales has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Imperial, an order dated October 18, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Refugio Mercado Rosales has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Refugio Mercado Rosales a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

David Manuel San Roman

David Manuel San Roman, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 9, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of attempted grand theft from person. Specifically, Mr. San Roman pretended to have a weapon under his shirt and demanded money. He served five months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on July 16, 1981, having completed his sentence.

David Manuel San Roman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated July 3, 1997, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. San Roman cares for his elderly mother and is an ordained minister. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Manuel San Roman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Manuel San Roman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Joseph Sherwood

Joseph Sherwood, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 20, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Merced, for the crime of transportation or sale of a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on August 20, 1987, having completed his sentence.

Joseph Sherwood has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joseph Sherwood, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joseph Sherwood a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Samuel Vincent Smith

Samuel Vincent Smith, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 23, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Smith committed robberies while under the influence of drugs and alcohol. He served two years, four months in California Youth Authority, and two years, three months parole. He was discharged on June 28, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Samuel Vincent Smith has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated August 24, 2012, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Smith donates regularly to the California Police Youth Group Charities and serves as a role model and mentor to others. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Samuel Vincent Smith has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Samuel Vincent Smith a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

Attachment:

I request to the State of California and the United States Of America for the forgiveness of a crime I did not commit and was attributed to me in 1993 by The Rampart Police Division in Los Angeles California.

On July 13th, 1993, I was arrested and prosecuted by the Rampart Division of the City of Los Angeles California, for a crime I did not commit. Nobody explained to me the consequences I could face by pleading guilty of the facts, when I was offered to leave in the shortest possible time. As a result I have a mark that follows me like a shadow every day of my life, and that shadow has closed the doors of opportunity for success in this country.

At the time of the arrest I trusted the authorities even knowing that I was not guilty. Years ago, when I used to live in my country, I was part of the police department and knowing a little bit about justice and procedures, I was pretty sure the investigation would show that I did not committed any crime against person or society and I had no direct or indirect involvement in the case I was accused in, the facts would be cleared immediately and I would become a free individual.

The facts: I'm a commercial driver, and on that day I was driving my taxi; it was a very hot day of July 1993, I approached with a client on board to the 600 block of S. Burlington St (W 6th St and S Burlington St). On the City of Los Angeles. This client asked me to wait for him for a few minutes because he had to return to another location; then he gave me some money as a security deposit for the waiting time. He gave me $20.00 and told me that he would come soon, he left my taxi and came inside an apartment building a few meters south of Burlington Street. As time passed, my client did not come out taking about 5 to 10 minutes. I decided to leave the vehicle because it was a really hot day and I was hit by the blazing sun of California. I crossed the street where there was a concrete wall to avoid the heat under its shadow. I was waiting for my client by the wall, when suddenly a small vehicle with two people on board approached. A white young woman was driving, and a young white man with dark hair, bearded and clean appearance was in the car as a passenger.

The passenger waved his right hand asking me to approach to his vehicle. For a second I thought that he was going to ask me for some directions, city or street nearby. As I approached his vehicle, he asked me few questions. I did not understand because by that time my English was pretty basic. I didn't understand what he meant. Not also my English level was basic, but it was limited to names of streets and buildings due to the nature of the work I was doing. I just approached the vehicle trying to understand what this person wanted when suddenly, running down the street corner of W. 6th and S Burlington, a Hispanic-looking young man of small size, came to the window of the vehicle and spoke briefly with the passenger who gave some money to him. As soon as the Hispanic guy gave something to the passenger, he left as fast as he came to the street. I was not sure of what had happened but some business had done. Everything happened very fast. I couldn't even understand what happened when I heard the sirens of patrol cars approaching the place, speeding all over the south and north of Burlington Street and within seconds we were surrounded by police. I was paralyzed next to the vehicle watching all of the officers pointed guns at my head. I tried to be as calmed as I could be, until an officer came up behind me, grabbed me and put me in handcuffs. I did not understand why I was being arrested, they did not explain anything to me, I was too scared and they did not even explain why I was arrested for. I had thousands of things around my mind at that time; I thought for sure they needed me to testify about what happened in front of my face. I was confident that once everything was cleared up they would let me go and call me to be a witness later. What I never imagined was all I had to go through after that day during the rest of my life. The Police officers put me in the back of a police car. When the door opened there were already four people in the back, and I was the number five. Few minutes later, they brought also the man who had come like lightning and made business with the passenger in the small vehicle. We were all taken to the police station (I think) known as the Glass House in Down Town Los Angeles. Once there, they put us all in a common cell and we were called one by one to give personal information.

I was even more confused when nobody asked me about what had happened in my presence, and as time was running we went through many places in there, until they took us to some cells where they took our clothes and got us examined. They gave us other clothing, we were all dressed the same (blue uniform with large letters LA County Jail). We were moved to other places and other buildings and spent few days until I was taken to see the Judge, without a lawyer or someone with me to tell me what was going on, or to explain what really was happening to me. When they read the charges, I did not understand anything, as explained before my English was very basic. I think I said NOT GUILTY. I was taken to jail again and for days I was locked up in LA County Jail, and then to another place in north of Los Angeles known as WAYSIDE COUNTY JAIL for about four weeks. Until that moment, no employee of the court or the police asked me anything about what I had seen on the day of the incident. After all those weeks in jail, I was taken back to see the judge again, at this time I saw the man with Hispanic appearance in court also. I thought that it was my day and that everything would be cleared, they brought us together before the Judge who after reading the charges. At that time, a person who spoke my language asked me if I understood why I was there, and I said no, he turned and spoke to the Judge in English, then asked me if I confessed guilty, innocent or if I objected the charges, told him I was innocent. I still kept the hope that someone asked me something about what I had seen, and why was I in the middle of that problem. I moved to the back of the room where another person who did not speak my language asked me some questions, and again I did not understand what he was saying. He called the interpreter and this person helped me to translate what the other person identified as my attorney (lawyer that I had not hired) was saying. During the conversation I was informed clearly about the matter for which I was being accused, but I was not informed of the consequences it would bring to my life by declaring me guilty of the charges imputed to me. The District Attorney, the public Defender and the translator, said that if I accepted all charges before the public defendant court, it would be easier to be released and that would have been in a few days. However, if I insisted on my innocence he said the process could be time consuming and I would easily be found guilty by the jury. He said I would be facing a penalty of not less than five years, until then I realized I had been the victim of a false arrest and I was accused of a crime I did not commit. All those days in prison seemed like years to me. I had problems with prisoners; sometimes some groups were fighting without reason, and I lived all these days thinking that at any moment they would beat me without reason. Being so scared, with lack of experience, knowledge and good legal representation, I agreed on the offer to accept the charges and being out in few days. I was found guilty of a crime I did not commit because of my ignorance. I was transferred to another county jail, green uniform this time, known as (Biscailuz). I have never been arrested for any other reason as I have never dedicated my life to the criminal activity of any kind.

Today, after almost twenty years I've carried the shadow which has reduced me to a life of limitations. I've seen many times how the doors of opportunity are closed in my face. Even the opportunity to fix my legal status in this country even though my wife and son are U.S. citizens.

I am married to a U.S. citizen and we have [redacted] child, who we have been educating in the best way possible according to our financial situation. It is our goal to make our son a good human being, who can achieve his goals in life, without taking away his right to grow and be educated by both parents (Dad and Mom). For this child I'm giving my fight. In recent years the doors of opportunity have been closed to people like me who try to survive and work honestly because of lack legal documents to work in this country and to continue a peaceful life in this country blessed by God.

I want to give this fight to continue living and working honestly in this country legally with all the rights and responsibilities of other citizens, I want to see my son grow up and want to see him developing his talents for this society, his society, like any other citizen who has the right to have both parents with him in the country of his birth.

I left my country about 23 years ago, and if I had to go back there with my family, I do not see how you can give my son an emotional stability, an education and a decent future, according to his abilities. In my country I have absolutely nothing... I would start again and I have no longer the same energy of the young man I was 23 years ago to start over again and to give my child what he deserves. All I want is to continue here in their country (my wife and son's), your country.

I tried to clear my record because I have my conscience clean, when in 1997 the scandal broke Rampart Division of the LAPD and corrupt police was discovered with similar charges as which I was the victim of false arrest ("planting of false evidence, framing of suspects ") and many other abuses that had arisen at that police precinct, I took the decision to make my complaint to the Chief of Police of Los Angeles in that year (1997) and it was not until 2000 , when I received an answer. By that time the Police Chief as Bernal Parks I've got an unsatisfactory response, I had no success with my complaint for lack of representation to go through the recess and specially for lack of money to afford such lawyer.

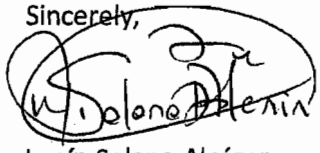
In the same year (2000) I went to a criminal lawyer in the city of Carson California and for a payment of $ 350.00 Dollars I earned an "expounch" according to the document (attached copy to this letter). I was given the "expounch" because they had raised more drug-related arrests or any other in the last eight years, I have never dedicated my life to the delinquency of any kind so I never could have had another similar situation, nor have I had, my life has been dedicated to honest work by driving my taxi. I've been in many cities in the states of California, Oregon and Washington, where in some towns, I've got closed doors on my record; other cities have opened their doors with their trust on me, giving me the opportunity to demonstrate I'm a honest man of God. I am very grateful for all these opportunities because thanks to them I get to bring sustenance to my family through my work. I wanted to hire a lawyer when I saved some dollars to reopen my case, to have a fair trial, but this lawyer warned me that if I submitted a request to reopen the case It would exposed me to immediate deportation, which would mean a tragedy for my family and our emotional stability, to destroy the family unit by the anxieties without my son and my wife would have to go through this separation, by being detained or deported out of the country, so I abandoned the idea and kept working with my family.

Solano-Alcazar

Today once again I take this step to apply for a waiver to the State of California and the United States of America, to be eligible and able to fix my immigration status and that the nightmare that began nearly 20 years to become my American dream, to see my son graduate as a professional in the career of his choice, peace in our minds and hearts and emotional stability will be given to my wife and I.

I cry out to God through the Governor of the state of California and the President of this great country that is known in all the earth sphere as the land flowing with milk and honey, for a full pardon to allow me to reconcile myself with the public and peace with God that I have right, I appeal to your mercy that is my right, and I grant forgiveness to clean my record and I can live the years that I need by my family that is the only treasure invaluable I have.
Thank you in advance for the time you have taken to read this petition, which our Heavenly Father always gives you, wisdom to carry the designs of this country according to his will.

Sincerely,



Lenín Solano Alcázar

Charles Edward Stafford

Charles Edward Stafford, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 22, 1971, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Monterey, for the crimes of robbery, conspiracy to commit robbery, and assault with a deadly weapon. Specifically, Mr. Stafford and a woman conspired to rob a market, took money from one man, and assaulted another. He served one year, ten months prison, one year, six months parole, and 15 days jail. He was discharged on August 9, 1974, having completed his sentence.

Charles Edward Stafford has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, an order dated April 23, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Charles Edward Stafford has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Charles Edward Stafford a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, an order dated October 27, 2006, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Wendy Kay Thompson (Pruitt) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Brock Eli Trotter, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 17, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Trotter apparently stole jewelry from a friend's home to support his drug habit, but later returned the jewelry to her. He served one year, one month prison, and one year, seven months parole. He was discharged on June 19, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Brock Eli Trotter has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated October 24, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Trotter earned his associate's and bachelor's degrees, and currently works as a recovery specialist for Kern County. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Brock Eli Trotter has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Brock Eli Trotter a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in regards to my conviction of cultivation of marijuana. Before my conviction I was dating a young woman. This woman is the one that planted the marijuana plants with the intention of personal use only. Soon before my conviction she and I separated and I was caught with the plants. I had no intention of distributing or selling the plants, but due to my addiction at the time I failed to dispose of them as I should have. My only intention at the time was to have them for personal use; I had no experience/knowledge of how to cultivate the plants. This all happened more than fifteen years ago and soon after that I began a drug free lifestyle that I still maintain to this day.

Sincerely,

James Curtis Vorwerk

James Curtis Vorwerk, a resident of California has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 19, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of transportation of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on March 19, 1985, having completed his sentence.

James Curtis Vorwerk has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated May 6, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Curtis Vorwerk has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Curtis Vorwerk a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 18th day of April, 2014.

Carlisle Wallace

Carlisle Wallace, a resident of Texas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 15, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of knowingly receiving stolen property. He served ten months probation. He was discharged on June 15, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Carlisle Wallace has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Wallace has been a Marine for over eighteen years and has earned many commendations and decorations for his service.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Carlisle Wallace, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Carlisle Wallace a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Attention: Governor Schwarzenegger

Dear Sir,

I am writing to request a full and unconditional pardon. Due to the eligibility requirements imposed by the Certificate of Rehabilitation, specifically the reference to military service, I am not able to proceed with that course of action. The only option available to me is to request this clemency from you. I believe my actions and demeanor over the last 15 years depict the standard for pardon stated in your philosophy statement.

I was convicted of Felony Possession of Stolen Property in the summer of 1994 and was sentenced to 365 days incarceration and 5 years of probation. Upon my release, I petitioned the judge to terminate my probation and reduce the conviction to a misdemeanor to facilitate my enlistment in the United States Marine Corps. The judge granted the revocation of probation but not the reduction of the conviction.

I applied for and received a felony waiver to join the Marine Corps and was enlisted on 7 August 1996 and have continued on Active Duty to the present. I have served honorably for over 14 years and have enjoyed a successful and productive life and career since my release. I am stationed in [redacted] where I currently serve with Marine Aerial Refueler Transport Squadron 252 as the Quality Assurance Chief.

I have enclosed a biography and data sheet that document my achievements and progress as a Marine.

To date the only lasting vestige of that time in my life is the record that remains documenting my misconduct. Any help you are able to provide will be greatly appreciated. My relevant information is listed below for reference.

Sincerely,

Carlisle L. Wallace

Stephen Leonard White

Stephen Leonard White, a resident of Idaho, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 4, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of diversion of funds. Specifically, Mr. White apparently was a licensed contractor and used construction loan funds to pay other bills. He served three years parole, and seven months prison. He was discharged on December 12, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Stephen Leonard White has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. White reports that he is an active volunteer in his church and community.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Stephen Leonard White has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Stephen Leonard White a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

PARDON

Harry Ralph Workman

Harry Ralph Workman, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 6, 1987, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of grand theft, property. Specifically, Mr. Workman was a night shift supervisor who allowed others to drive tanker trucks onto the gas company property and load them with crude oil. He served one year, nine months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on January 18, 1990, having completed his sentence.

Harry Ralph Workman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, an order dated March 29, 2012, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Workman was honorably discharged from the Navy, has cared for his mentally handicapped son, and helps a disabled neighbor. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Harry Ralph Workman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Harry Ralph Workman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

Joseph Worsley Jr.

Joseph Worsley Jr., a resident of North Carolina, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 23, 1964, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of burning or destroy insured property. Specifically, Mr. Worsley filed a false claim for damage on his 1960 Triumph Roadster. He served three years probation, and 45 days jail. He was discharged on October 5, 1966, having completed his sentence.

Joseph Worsley Jr. has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Worsley retired after working for over 32 years for the Federal Aviation Administration as a Supervisory Electronics Technician, volunteers at local fire department barbeques, and donates to several elderly families.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joseph Worsley Jr., has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joseph Worsley Jr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2014.

The Honorable Jerry Brown Jr.
Governor's Office
State Capitol
Attention: Legal Affairs Secretary
Sacramento, CA 95814

OCT 17 2013

I am writing to you to request a pardon for a non violent felony crime I committed in approximately early 1964. I filed a false insurance claim in the amount of approximately $2200 when I was in California. I was 23 at the time the claim was submitted and unfortunately still immature. I was convicted of the crime and completed probation and as the attached document states. I was granted relief forever of all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which I was convicted per Judge Wainer of the Superior Court of California. This document was signed on October 5, 1966.

I am not a resident of California and have not been since 1964. In accordance with California's rules for non residents of California I have to request a Pardon directly from your office and cannot go thru the California system for a Traditional Governors Pardon.

I found out about two years ago that I cannot purchase a firearm due to California and the information being documented in the FBI NCIS computer system forbidding a person convicted of a Section 1203.4 Penal code owning or possessing a firearm The FBI NICS computer system showed the conviction but didn't have the document detailing my relief on file. After about two years of searching I was able to find the office in California responsible for communicating with the FBI and they were able to find the document in old files showing the order dismissing the Acusation against me after completing probation. This had neverr been computerized nor forwarded to the FBI to be entered in their system. The FBI NICS system persons involved with permitting the purchase of a handgun submitted the document to their legal system and it was still denied.

In accordance with the decree granted me in 1966 I was released of all penalties resulting from this conviction. California has changed their statutes numerous times since then and it appears that the decree signed by Judge Wainer no longer seems to be recognized. At the time the release was signed my rights were restored to me.

I have lived a honorable life since that time and was a government employee with the [redacted] as a Supervisdory Electronics Technicaian for 32 years and passed several security clearances which seemed to have had no effect on me but now many years later I am restricted by what I feel is a violation of the rights that were to have been restored to me by this Order. I recognize that current regulations probably forbid the ownership of a fire arm but this is not what the decree granted by Judge Wainer states.

Worsley

I also recognize that this is not the best time to be pursuing this due to the current activity going on about the ownership of fire arms in this country. My effort to purchase a hand gun did not begin recently. I started the process several years ago when my wife and I felt that we should have a hand gun in the house due to the number of home intrusions occurring in our area. I can assure you that the sheriff of our county [redacted] holds a strict philosophy on the ownership and the state of NC requires thorough reviews of all persons requesting a permit to purchase a firearm. I applied thru the Sheriff's office for the right to purchase a firearm and have been vetted thru their process and approved to purchase a firearm but as I have stated the FBI system will not allow it.

I am asking that as the Governor of California you see fit to set aside the conviction via a pardon as is stated in the attached document which would remove the 1203.4 Penal Code conviction which is still on my records in California and in the FBI computer system. I am told by the FBI this is the only route by which I can straighten out the problem of my rights not being restored as was to have been granted to me by this Decree.

I would appreciate your consideration of the above request. If the pardon is approved I would also appreciate your office insuring the notification of the pardon is filed with the FBI in their computer system.

I have sent this copplete package to the San Diego County District Attorneys office also as my prior submission in Apriol 2013 appears to have been misplaced.

Thank you,

Joseph Marion Worsley [illegible] Irish Town Court Records
