Tenant, Homeowner, and Small Landlord Relief and Stabilization Act of 2020

• No COVID-19-Related Evictions Until February 1, 2021
  o Tenant cannot be evicted for a COVID-19 related hardship that accrued between March 4 – August 31, 2020 if tenant returns declaration of hardship under penalty of perjury.
  o Tenant cannot be evicted for a COVID-19 related hardship that accrues between September 1, 2020 – January 31, 2021 if tenant returns declaration of hardship under penalty of perjury and pays at least 25% of the rent due.
  o Higher income tenants (over $100K household income or over 130% of median household income, whichever is higher) must provide documentation to support their declaration upon a landlord’s request.
  o Applies to all residential tenants (including mobile home tenants), regardless of immigration status.

• Tenants Still Responsible for Paying Unpaid Amounts to Landlords
  o So long as the tenant with COVID-19 related hardship follows the bill’s procedures, any unpaid rent due between March 4, 2020 – January 31, 2021 is not a ground/basis for eviction, but is still owed to the landlord as a form of consumer debt.
  o Small claims court jurisdiction is temporarily expanded to allow landlords to recover these amounts.
  o Landlords may begin to recover this debt on March 1, 2021. This expanded small-claims court provision sunsets on February 1, 2025.

• Additional Legal and Financial Protections for Tenants
  o Extends notice period for nonpayment of rent from 3 to 15 days to provide tenant additional time to respond to landlord’s notice to pay rent or quit.
  o Requires landlords to provide hardship declaration forms in a different language if rental agreement was negotiated in a different language.
  o Provides tenants a backstop if they have a good reason for failing to return the hardship declaration within 15 days.
  o Requires landlords to provide tenants a notice detailing their rights under the Act.
  o Limits public disclosure ("masking") of eviction cases involving nonpayment of rent between March 4, 2020 – January 31, 2021.
  o Protects tenants against being evicted for “just cause” if the landlord is shown to be evicting the tenant for COVID-19-related nonpayment of rent.

• Statewide Consistency and a Pause on Local Measures o Existing local ordinances can remain in place until they expire and future local action cannot undermine this Act’s framework.
  o Requires ordinances that provide a repayment schedule to begin repayment no later than March 1, 2021.
  o Clarifies that nothing in the Act affects a local jurisdiction’s ability to adopt an ordinance that requires just cause, consistent with state law, provided it does not affect rental payments before January 31, 2021.

• Protections for Small Landlords
  o Extends the Homeowners’ Bill of Rights’ anti-foreclosure protections to small landlords, 1-4 units, non-owner occupied.
Tenant, Homeowner, and Small Landlord Relief and Stabilization Act of 2020

- Provides new accountability and transparency provisions to protect small landlord borrowers who request CARES-compliant forbearance, and provides the borrower who is harmed by a material violation with a cause of action.

- Significantly Increases Penalties on Landlords Who Do Not Follow Court Evictions Process
  - Increases penalties on landlords who resort to self-help (i.e., locking the tenant out, throwing property out onto the curb, shutting off utilities) to evict a tenant, rather than going through the required court process.
