Jamar Baines

Jamar Baines, a resident of Georgia and former resident of California, has applied for executive clemency.

On June 26, 1996, the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, sentenced Mr. Baines to three years of probation and 1 year in jail for second degree robbery. He was 19 years old at the time of his crime.

Mr. Baines has complied with the provisions of California Penal Code sections 4852.01 through 4852.22, which provide a procedure after completion of sentence to seek restoration of civic rights and responsibilities. On July 21, 2022, the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, granted Mr. Baines a Certificate of Rehabilitation on evidence that he has been living an upright life. By granting Mr. Baines's petition for a Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that Mr. Baines be granted a full pardon.

This act of clemency for Mr. Baines does not minimize or forgive his conduct or the harm it caused. It does recognize the work he has done since to transform himself, and his service to California and the United States in the Marine Corps.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community, Mr. Baines merits this pardon.

THEREFORE, I, GAVIN NEWSOM, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jamar Baines a full and unconditional pardon for the above case.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 30th day of May 2023.

On July 23, 1963, the Superior Court of California, County of Madera, sentenced 19-year-old Mr. De Leon to two years of probation and 180 days in jail for burglary. On September 7, 2007, the Superior Court of California, County of Madera, sentenced Mr. De Leon to three years in prison for possession of a controlled substance for sale. Fabian Rebolledo

Fabian Rebolledo, a resident of California, has applied for executive clemency.

On August 20, 2008, the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles sentenced Mr. Rebolledo to 16 months in prison for passing a fictitious check. On June 10, 2015, the court reduced Mr. Rebolledo's felony conviction to a misdemeanor, and on September 13, 2017, vacated the conviction pursuant to Penal Code section 18.5 and imposed a time-served sentence of 364 days in jail.

Mr. Rebolledo submitted a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has provided evidence that he is living an upright life and has demonstrated his fitness for restoration of civic rights and responsibilities. Mr. Rebolledo has also presented evidence that a collateral consequence of his conviction, namely, his impending deportation and permanent separation from his family and removal from his community, further justifies this exercise of executive clemency.

This act of clemency for Mr. Rebolledo does not minimize or forgive his conduct or the harm it caused. It does recognize the work he has done since to transform himself and his service to California and the United States in the Army.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community, Mr. Rebolledo merits this pardon.
