Lonnie Alexander

Lonnie Alexander, a resident of California, has applied for executive clemency.

On January 4, 1991, the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, sentenced Mr. Alexander to four years in prison for the transport or sale of a controlled substance. On August 3, 1993, the court sentenced Mr. Alexander to two years in prison for possession of drugs or alcohol in prison.

Mr. Alexander complied with the provisions of California Penal Code sections 4852.01 through 4852.22, which provide a procedure after completion of sentence to seek restoration of civic rights and responsibilities. On July 8, 2011, the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego, granted Mr. Alexander a Certificate of Rehabilitation on evidence that he has been living an upright life. By granting Mr. Alexander's petition for a Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that Mr. Alexander be granted a pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings reviewed Mr. Alexander's clemency application and voted at an en banc meeting to recommend a pardon grant. The California Supreme Court also reviewed his application and made a recommendation for a pardon grant, a process required by the California Constitution in cases where the applicant has sustained more than one felony conviction.

This act of clemency for Mr. Alexander does not minimize or forgive his conduct or the harm it caused. It does recognize the work he has done since to transform himself.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community, Mr. Alexander merits this pardon.

THEREFORE, I, GAVIN NEWSOM, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Lonnie Alexander a full and unconditional pardon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 22nd day of October 2026.

Jose Moran

Jose Moran, a resident of California, has applied for executive clemency.

On August 23, 1995, the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, sentenced Mr. Moran to six years in prison for receiving stolen property, transport or sale of a controlled substance, and possession of a controlled substance while armed.

Mr. Moran submitted a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has provided evidence that he is living an upright life and has demonstrated his fitness for restoration of civic rights and responsibilities.

The Board of Parole Hearings reviewed Mr. Moran's clemency application and voted at an en banc meeting to recommend a pardon grant. The California Supreme Court also reviewed his application and made a recommendation for a pardon grant, a process required by the California Constitution for cases in which the applicant has been convicted of more than one felony.

This act of clemency for Mr. Moran does not minimize or forgive his conduct or the harm it caused. It does recognize the work he has done since to transform himself.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community, Mr. Moran merits this pardon.

THEREFORE, I, GAVIN NEWSOM, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jose Moran a full and unconditional pardon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 22nd day of October 2026.

Hoang-Vu Nguyen

Hoang-Vu Nguyen, a resident of California, has applied for executive clemency.

On July 11, 2000, the Superior Court of California, County of Orange, sentenced 20-year-old Mr. Nguyen to three years of probation and 60 days in jail for possession of marijuana for sale and giving away marijuana.

Mr. Nguyen complied with the provisions of California Penal Code sections 4852.01 through 4852.22, which provide a procedure after completion of sentence to seek restoration of civic rights and responsibilities. On May 3, 2024, the Superior Court of California, County of Sacramento, granted Mr. Nguyen a Certificate of Rehabilitation on evidence that he has been living an upright life. By granting Mr. Nguyen's petition for a Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that Mr. Nguyen be granted a pardon.

This act of clemency for Mr. Nguyen does not minimize or forgive his conduct or the harm it caused. It does recognize the work he has done since to transform himself.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community, Mr. Nguyen merits this pardon.

THEREFORE, I, GAVIN NEWSOM, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Hoang-Vu Nguyen a full and unconditional pardon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 22nd day of October 2026.
